Mendon Public Library Recognized the Friends of the Mendon Public Library

October 15-21, 2023 marked “National Friends of the Libraries Week.” The Mendon Public Library joined with libraries and communities across the country in recognizing the good work of this important volunteer group. The Mendon Public Library is a better place thanks to the support of the Friends of the Mendon Public Library (FMPL).

The Friends accomplish all this by conducting a variety of fundraisers, including their Annual Appeal, Library Bag Sales, Bunny Raffle, Spring Flower Sale, Historic Brick Sale, In-Library Used Book Sale, online donations, and ROC the Day participation. In 2023, the FMPL helped to support our programs for all ages and allowed us to purchase several new toys for the Children’s Area.

The FMPL is a 501c3 organization dedicated to enhancing our library. Friends’ meetings typically occur on the 2nd Tuesday of each month (not summer months) and are open to everyone. The next Friends meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 14, 2023 at 6:30 p.m. at the library. New members are always welcome to join.

The New York State Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) annual State Conference was held in Syracuse from September 20th through the 24th. Six members of the Ska-Hase-Ga-O NSDAR Chapter in Lima attended.

New York State has 118 DAR Chapters. Ska-Hase-Ga-O is the only remaining Livingston County Chapter. The Conference offers an opportunity for Daughters from across the state to conduct business and to network with colleagues and other Chapters. It also provides recognition and celebration of achievements.

Stephanie Dempsey, Ska-Hase-Ga-O Regent, was presented the New York State DAR 2023 Outstanding Chapter Regent Award. This highly celebrated award is presented to only one Regent each year. Stephanie was nominated by the officers and membership of Ska-Hase-Ga-O in recognition of her excellent leadership of and dedication to the Chapter. Stephanie also received the Exceptional State Chair Certificate for her work with the NYDAR Project Patriot Committee.

Other Ska-Hase-Ga-O Chapter awards included a Certificate of Recognition for Historical Preservation, a Blue-Ribbon Certificate for our annual Master Report, and a Certificate noting Exceptional Work for a DAR Patriot Project. Ska-Hase-Ga-O was also the winner of the “Pennies for Pouch” statewide challenge to support DAR educational works.

Get Out And Vote!

Nearly 250 years ago, our forefathers took arms against a state that disdained individual freedoms. Instead, those in power saw everyone else as chattel, mere peons to slake their thirst for wealth. In earning their right to govern themselves, these patriots willed to their descendants a power of their own: a government of the people, for the people, and by the people.

Now it is time again to exercise that franchise you’re heir to. It’s time to vote.

You might feel your vote doesn’t matter. What matters, however, is the act of voting. Sooner than you think, your vote will matter. It would be a shame if, for lack of habit, you missed it. For that’s how tyranny rises.

And don’t say it’s not possible. Take a look at what’s happening in our very State. Yes, the elections will be local this year, but where do you think State politicians get their start?

Encourage those local citizens seeking to serve to who you could one day imagine serving in Albany.

Get out and vote for them, even if they’re running unopposed.

Because your vote matters now.

Vacation’s Almost Over For Houseplants

BY DUANE PANCOAST

If you have houseplants on the deck or patio, it’s time to keep an eye on the thermometer and an ear to weather reports. Nighttime temps will soon begin to plummet and frost will be in the forecast. That means summer vacation is over for your fair weather plants and you’ll have to bring them indoors.

Birchcrest Tree & Landscape President Dave Dailey advises that the sooner you start planning for this migration, the easier it’ll be. Your first decision will be where to put the plants you’ll be bringing back into the house. Are their old homes still waiting for them? Or are they occupied by new plants you acquired over the summer? If their old homes await their return, great! If their spots have new occupants, then begin the transition by shuffling plants around to make room.

Your houseplant transition doesn’t have to take place all at once. Dailey recommends moving each plant inside as the forecast overnight low nears its cold tolerance level. They should all be back indoors when the first hard frost warning is issued.

Be sure the plants are clean before moving them inside. Remove weeds that may have taken up residence in their container. Also guard against taking insects indoors where they can infest your healthy plants. If you can see insect activity, such as eggs, chewed leaves or the insects themselves, pick off what’s visible and hose off others. If no insects or insect activity’s visible, take the precautionary step of shaking the plant and then submerging the container in water to drown any insects in the soil or on the soil surface.

Dailey suggests that you quarantine the plants for a day or two before taking them into the house, if you’re able to. You need a place in which they can get sufficient sunlight during the day and not freeze at night. Suggestions include a garage or outbuilding with enough windows to let photosynthesis continue, or a glassed in, unheated sunroom. This quarantine will allow the plants to adjust to an inside environment gradually. It’ll also give soil an opportunity to dry out from dunking, and you can check for any lingering insects.

Don’t forget to water the quarantined plants if they need it. When you take the plants indoors, use a moisture meter or base your watering regimen on the humidity in the house and the feel of the soil.

Plants whose crowns are substantially larger than when you put them outside can be pruned before going into the house, according to Dailey. Otherwise, they may not fit the space you have allocated for them. Using pruning shears or sharp kitchen scissors, remove one third or up to half the foliage. If you can identify new growth, pruning off only that foliage will return the plant to its size when you took it outside. When pruning, always try to maintain the plant’s natural shape.

Your houseplants added an attractive touch to your deck or patio all season. But now it’s time to bring them back to their natural environment. There’s a reason why they’re called houseplants; the house is their natural habitat. Dailey says these easy steps will make the transition good for the plants and for you.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

How To Submit Your Letter

The SENTINEL is offering you page two to share your own words. We’ll even help you do it. The rules are simple: No insults. No false accusations. No uncorroborated testimony. And try to keep it local. It can be a kind thank to a neighbor or it can be a concern about something you see every day. And while commenting on politics always carries risk we encourage those who feel their voice is underrepresented in the media to use our pages to share your point of view. Just try to avoid the same-ol/same-old national issues we already bear too much about. If you want to comment on broader issues, stick with what’s going on in New York State. Albany and New York City might be outside the SENTINEL’s coverage area, but you can be sure what’s going on there will eventually impact us. So speak out now about it when there’s a chance it can be nipped in the bud.

Rules For Letters During Election Season

With Election season upon us, The Sentinel would like to remind readers that they can submit letters in support of their candidate. In addition to the rules above to keep the letter positive, letters regarding the election will only be printed if we have both sides to the election, if possible. We will also not accept any letters after the October 26 edition. This is to ensure that a response to any letter can be published prior to the election on November 7. Thank You!

SMITHS’ LISTS
COLORFUL IDIOMS & EXPRESSIONS
THE INSIDE STORY ON THE
SYRACUSE ORANGE

BY DEB AND TIM SMITH

We have taken Halloween and the month of October to fashion a colorful investigation of the color orange. The month began with our exploration of some orange idioms and expressions and in these final two weeks we’re taking a look at the history of Syracuse University’s “Orange” logo and nickname.

In all of our color idiom articles, we’ve included a component on how the color is used in sports nicknames on the professional, college and high school levels. Of the 12 colors we cover, orange is the only color to appear just one time across all three levels. No other college uses it as a nickname, there are no usages whatsoever in any of the four major professional sports, and not one high school in Section V has orange as its nickname or even part of its nickname.

Last week we recounted the sometimes-forgotten origin of the Syracuse nickname. From 1931-2004 the college’s sports teams competed as the “Orangemen” which was a reference to the skin color of the Native American Onondaga tribe which originally inhabited the land where the SU campus now stands. The nickname was accompanied by a somewhat frightening logo featuring a hatchet-wielding savage with very stereotypical and unflattering facial features.

THE “ORANGEMEN” ERA ~ From the 1930’s to the 1970’s Syracuse sports teams enjoyed considerable success playing as the Orangemen with the Saltine Warrior logo. The list of athletes who thrived during this era would include football legends Ernie Davis, Jim Brown, and Larry Csonka, along with basketball players Dave Bing and Jim Boenheim. While the logo was discontinued in the 1970’s, the nickname stuck around until 2004, as mentioned above.

One unique element which appeared within this realm of Orangemen sports imagery was that in the mid-1950’s members of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity began to serve as on-court mascots for the university. For what it’s worth, the fraternity did require its annual choice to be “a big handsome junior at least 6 feet tall.” The costume of the hunky shirtless junior consisted of a headdress, face paint, fringed leather vest, flannel pants, and of course the whole ensemble was complemented by the addition of trendy brown moccasins. While the get-up was enough to make every squaw in the audience swoon, something wasn’t quite right.

THE ERA OF POLITICAL CORRECTNESS ~ In 1976 Native American students and members of the Onondaga Nation began voicing concerns over the Saltine Warrior logo and frat boy mascot. Taking the lead in the initiative was Oren Lyons, an Onondaga chief and 1964 SU graduate. He said, “The thing that offended me when I was there, was that guy running around like a nut. That’s derogatory, and the headdress and war paint worn by the mascot is that of a western tribe like the Sioux.”

At this point the demise of the traditional Syracuse logo and mascot came surprisingly fast. In 1978 a meeting was scheduled involving the Onondaga Nation, Syracuse University, and the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. After the meeting the university announced the retirement of the Native American logo and mascot, rushing as quickly as possible to remove the theme as a topic of conversation and/or controversy.

That being said, the nickname did survive for almost three more decades. It was not until 2004 that the Syracuse nickname was officially changed from Orangemen to Orange. This change, as mentioned last week, came in accordance with an NCAA dictum mandating that its members needed to abandon any Native American nicknames and imagery unless they obtained official support from the individual tribes whose imagery was being used.

So while the Native American element can no longer be found in the imagery or verbiage of Syracuse University, it will always remain a staple storyline in the school’s rich history. Thus concludes our October salute to the color orange and here’s wishing you the happiest of Halloweens!

Blasdell, The Beatles, And Brotherhood

There was always The Beatles. Or at least it seemed that way.

I was too young to remember a time before The Beatles.

Strike that.

I certainly do remember the years before The Beatles (or, more appropriately, their music) landed on American shores. I can recall several memorable scenes from the time I was one or two years old.

I remember watching Mercury launches on the black-and-white TV in the living room of our apartment. I remember waiting for my mother to return home (from either work or school—that part I can't remember) in that same living room on 83 Victory Avenue. I remember taking walks on that same street.

I remember staying at my grandparents on Ingham Avenue while my parents went out. I slept in the crib in the back room. Rather, I was supposed to be sleeping in the crib in the back room. What I really did was stand up against the railing and stare out the window.

The moonlit scene illuminated the slow moving railroad cars on the two levels of tracks. The raised level had box cars moving one way. Moving in the opposite direction, the lower level contained "coal cars." That's what I thought they were. I eventually learned the cars were called "gondolas" and they carried coke, not coal.

I don't know why I remember this particular view. Many years later, long after I had told this story repeatedly, I discovered an old photograph of this exact scene taken from the same window. It turns out the rail traffic was standard for the era. The coke cars traveled to and from the coke ovens and mills on South Buffalo Railways track. The Lehigh Valley regularly ferried box cars containing car parts to the Ford plant on its elevated tracks.

How do I know I was between one and two years old? First, we moved out of the apartment in Lackawanna to our new home on Abbott Parkway in Blasdell in August 1963, just after my third birthday. Second, there was always another person in my memories—my brother Kenny.

He was in the living room as we waited for our mother to return. (Our poor father seemed a bit on edge with his two young sons, as if he was worried he'd have to do something he wasn't quite sure how to do.)

He was in the stroller my mother pushed. (I tried to sit in the lower basket in the back. That didn't work, and I preferred to walk.)

He was at my grandparents' apartment in the high chair when my uncles threatened to feed us both to the barking junkyard dog next door. (My grandmother yelled at them for this, then put us to bed in the back room.)

By the summer of 1963, with a new home, a new street, and new friends (kids close enough to our age lived next door).

But that wasn't the only new thing. Unbeknownst to us, in October of that year, John Lennon and Paul McCartney penned "I Want To Hold Your Hand." Released in the UK a month later, it would have been the number one hit had it not been for The Beatles' previous release—"She Loves You"—already occupying that spot. Within two weeks, though, "I Want To Hold Your Hand" would displace its predecessor.

I can't recall popular music until The Beatles defined it. There are claims, however, I did "The Twist" before I turned one. In fact, there's video evidence of it, but I don't remember it.

"We tracked down every rumor that The Beatles would once again band together. I bought the Klaatu album. Kenny bought the books."

On the other hand, almost immediately upon the band's first release ("I Want To Hold Your Hand") in January 1964, Kenny and I took to the tune. I remember that. My three-year-old self sang it as "I want to hold YOU hand."

When we visited our grandparents, we rifled through their record collection, eager to find my teeny-bopper aunt's Beatles albums. We couldn't play them—didn't know how to—but we liked to look at the picture and identify each Beatle. It was a strange way for two elementary school brothers to bond.

Mom had an AM radio in the kitchen. Back then, all popular AM stations played Top 40. We'd either listen to WKBW or WGR. They had news, sports, and weather. And rock & roll. Kenny and I would perk up whenever a Beatles song came on.

What we couldn't understand was how The Beatles so quickly traveled from one station to the other. Yeah, we were smart enough to know there weren't miniature Beatles playing inside our radio. Of course, we did believe they actually played live at the radio station; hence, the perceived perplexing travel logistics.

We grew up with The Beatles. The Early Beatles. The movie Beatles (Hard Days' Night and Help!). The Sgt. Pepper's Beatles.

And The Late Beatles.

We joined the school bus stop arguments about who was the favorite Beatle. We laughed at those who thought The Monkees were better (or even real).

One time, when visiting our cousin's house, she furtively asked in a whisper, "Chris, Kenny, come to my room but don't tell your mother." She then played "Lucy in the Sky With Diamonds" as if it were some contraband song. Kenny and I looked at each other and said, "What's the deal? We hear this song on the radio all the time."

When we walked the area streets on a paper drive for Boy Scouts with our next-door neighbor, we collected all sorts of paper products. One item included a Life Magazine that was a "best of the 60s" issue. It had a black cover, a montage of public figures from the "Decade of Tumult and Change." Prominent among those were The Beatles (the early years version).

Kenny & I wanted to keep it, but our neighbor was older, and he was an actual Boy Scout (we were just Cub Scouts), so he had first dibs. He grabbed the mag. (I've since bought the issue for my collection.)

The Beatles broke up in 1970. We thought they did it just to get on a magazine cover and would soon be back together.

That wasn't the only thing that broke up in 1970. Our family left Abbott Parkway for a new home in a new city. Blasdell, like The Beatles, became the past.

But the brotherhood remained. It proved stronger. Strong enough to begin a new enthusiasm for The Beatles (if not Blasdell). Kenny & I collected our allowance money to buy—guess what?

Nope. We used that money to buy baseball and football cards. We used those cards to trade for other cards. We sold those other cards. That brought in more money than our allowance. That was enough money to buy old Beatles albums.

And that's what we did.

We tracked down every rumor that The Beatles would once again band together. I bought the Klaatu album. Kenny bought the books.

We bought every re-release. My first CD gift to Kenny was a Beatles album. Not Abbey Road like I had hoped because at the time it was only available in a Japanese format. It was Tony Sheridan and The Beatles.

For his wedding I helped him splice together a Lennon song ("Grow Old With Me") with a McCartney song ("Pipes of Peace"). Would we have had the technology then that we have today. All we could do was record one song on a cassette and play the other on the record. Between the two, we determined the best place for the splice to occur. Of course, between us and the wedding videographer, something got lost in transition, and the end product was less than what we imagined.

But we knew what it should have sounded like. And it was a perfect blend.

And maybe that's all that mattered.

It's fitting, then, that on this day, November 2, 2023, what is likely the final original Beatles single is to be released. Called "Now and Then," it features recordings of the two dead Beatles with overlays from the two surviving Beatles.

Oh, yeah, did I mention that November 2 is Kenny's birthday? He would have been 62.

Maybe I should go to Blasdell to listen to it.

FALLEN FLAG* #6

by Paul S. Worboys
psworboys@gmail.com

#6 New York Central “Peanut” - 1939/Present

There is a story of the man, much intoxicated, who boarded a “Peanut” train at Batavia without a ticket. Moses Cleveland, the veteran conductor, is said to have asked him where he was going. The man replied, “to Hell.” Moses understood that he meant Honeoye Falls and, when the train pulled up to the station, he came to the man and said, “Get off, this is your destination.” (Rochester Union & Advertiser; July 24th, 1869)

[This was a lame joke, foisted on the folks of Honeoye Falls at that time. But what could they say? Dealing with the unwanted tag, “Murderville,” the village was saddled with three killings (1857, ’58 and ’63) over the past dozen years... and a fourth (1869) a few weeks after the U&A snub? So too, the “Western House of Refuge,” the early version of Industry, opened its doors to its first commitments in 1849... two troublesome lads from “West Mendon” (before it became “Honeoye Falls.”).]

Unfortunately, there was no follow-up as to whether the man was satisfied with his selection of where to spend eternity, but more than a few folks considered the village closer to utopian. In 1869, the drunk arrived at his version of Hell, but, well over a century and a half later, diminutive HF depot is still standing.

No, not there... on Maplewood Avenue. It was the domicile of two local giants – Millie and Ronald “Red” Parmelee. Since post-WWII, it had long-been their haven, raising a brood of three, until they passed on in recent years. Red, the life long “Taps” bugler, died in 2000, and Millie, long-time Village Clerk and the epitome of civic duty, followed in 2012.

Lifted from NY Central property in 1931, the Sleigh boys literally rolled the passenger depot the length of Lehigh and Locust Streets and, with a delicate final maneuver down Maplewood Hill... to a cozy spot at the bottom. Another family of local legend and lore, the Sleights opened a kind of Great Depression era 7-11 convenience store, but, with the demise of “Prohibition” in 1933, they managed to find space for a barroom.

NYC Depot/yard c. 1910
(HF-Mendon Historical Society collection)

NYC HF depot was moved and converted into a store... until Prohibition was rescinded, that is.
(HF-Mendon Historical Society collection)

The most tangible evidence of the HF NYC “Peanut” depot today is barely recognizable. Being the Parmelee’s home, in 1995, Red showed the writer a roof patch, discovered during a shingles replacement. Could it be the other 2/3 of that depot sign became patches up there, too? That’s o.k., since the very important left-hand segment seems to have been lost over the ensuing years.

With that I’ll leave the depot story for one equally fascinating just across Norton Street. Stew Mulligan’s Railroad Avenue for February 4th, 2010 was inspired by the activities of former Village Historian and bon vivant, David K. Maloney, in the early 1960s.

There was talk of deep-sixing the carriage block, so the Village Board asked Dave to investigate. With the passage of another sixty years, that hunk of limestone should be considered one of the more valuable throwbacks in village history.

Carriage Welcome Mat

[Railroad Avenue, February 4th, 2010]

Here’s another anecdote from the Norton Street Community Speedbump neighborhood, that area of hope and change. The focus of this yarn lies just over the sidewalk from the community speed-bump. It is a ton’s worth of limestone, fronting the apartment house that sits well back from the speedway.

More than a 120 years ago, about the first thing railroad travelers would see upon alighting from New York Central “Peanut Branch” trains, was the large place with the sprawling front porch known as “The Railroad House.” The Central’s little depot, its site now beneath the new speed-bump laundromat (Norton Laundry Mill), witnessed thousands of arrivals over an inglorious eighty-year lifespan. After a cinder-sprinkled ride from Canandaigua, Batavia or Niagara Falls, many passengers partook of overnight accommodations or a swig of tavern delights.

Stephen Ritzenthaler, energetic businessman whose hotel, sawmill, lumberyard and cooperage instilled life into the entire railroad district, was also prone to jolly good fanfare, such as establishing the first bowling alley in town. This virtually illegible hunk of stone is his memorial and, except for splitting in twain, has survived changing seasons, changing times and at least one relocation. Decades ago, about 1964, the Village Historian at the time, David K. Maloney, typed this muse about the stone’s future:

Dear Mayor,

I ventured up Norton Street last evening, at the request of the Village Board, to identify the stone which stands in front of the former hotel and which now would interfere with road construction on that particular highway.

This stone came from the old Honeoye Falls quarry and is referred to as ‘soft slab stone.’ It was apparently used as a carriage stone when the building was a commercial inn, and has the following wording cut in its face: “ERECTED A. D. 1889 by S. & E. RITZENTHALER witnessed by WM. LAY” [An accompanying sketch showed symbols in each corner for Lady Justice (Law and Order), Flag (American Flag), Bird (Dove of Peace) and Indian Chief (Seneca Culture)].

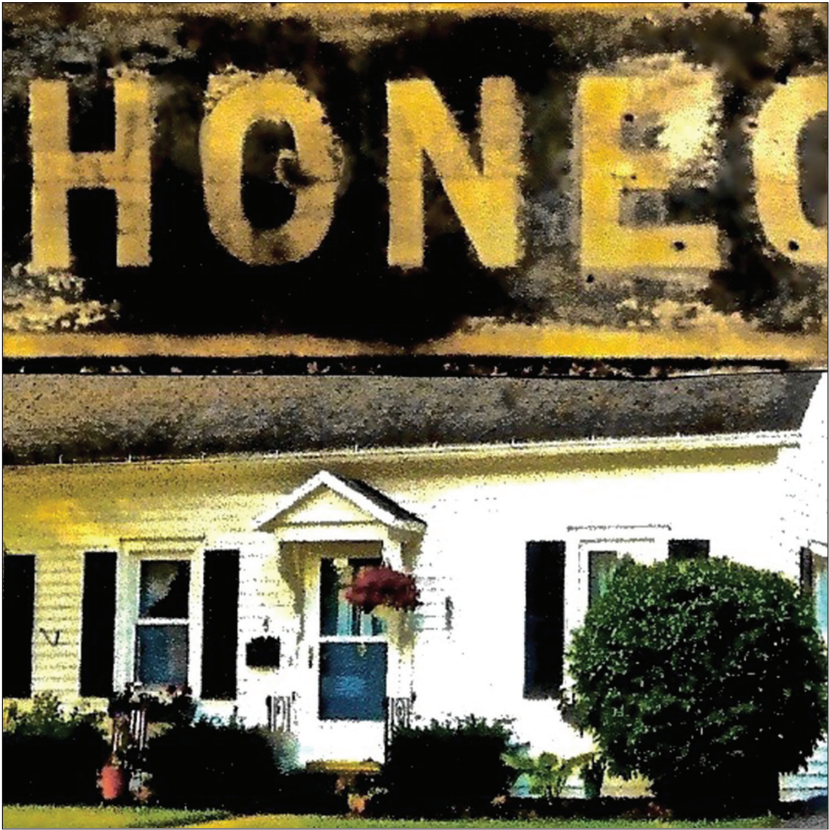

In my humble opinion, this stone has no historical value. It was purely a commercial ad in its day and was no doubt decorated with a thought toward humor. The stone itself is broken and in worn condition. I can think of no reason for erecting it in any other part of our village for historical purposes.

Should the day come when Honeoye Falls might have a museum building, it would add color to a collection, but little else. Here is the rub – all that is necessary to cause a hubbub, as you well know, is to destroy some object that no one has even noticed in fifty

My suggestion is this: when the stone is removed, so that roadwork can be completed, have both pieces placed on my back lawn for posterity. At least you will know where it is! If this does not meet with the approval of your associates, smash it up and throw it in the dump.

As it happened, the Lima gentleman who owned the property, had more of the packrat in him than expected. He requested the stone be moved to its present location, where it was placed on a concrete foundation. While the foundation is more rubble than concrete, Stephen Ritzenthaler's welcome mat (cracked, chipped and all) stands strong against the forces of time.

If it ever came to a point of destruction again, this writer will modify and echo the words of DKM, that long-ago historian: "...have both pieces placed for posterity in Harry Allen Park, perhaps hard-by the "District #15 Schoolhouse."

Oh yes, times have changed. In 2023, it deserves proper preservation, nstead of benign neglect...PSW

Stephen Ritzenthaler came from Germany, set up a cooperage and a sawmill (at the falls), before turning to the hotel business. His creativity was evident in the massive carriage block and the village's first bowling alley, among other 'projects.'

Blues artist Jeremiah Johnson at Fanatics on November 5

Bluesman Jeremiah Johnson will perform at Fanatics Pub in Lima on November 5th.

His latest album, HI-FI DRIVE BY, taps into the highly talented musicians of Johnson's hometown of St. Louis, MO. Johnson wanted to go back to the blues and rock n roll basics, recruiting St. Louis Legend, co-producer Tom Maloney, and producer Paul Niehaus IV. The trio began assembling some of the best horn players, backing vocalists, and percussionists in St. Louis to create the excellent thick layers of musicianship tastefully captured on the new album.

Johnson has released three chart topping releases, Straitjacket (#6 Billboard - August 2018), Heavens to Betsy (#1 Billboard - April 2020), Unemployed Highly Annoyed (#4 Billboard - November 2020). Combined with his previous two releases, GRIND (#8 November 2015), Blues Heart Attack (#5 August 2016); Johnson's five releases have all been in the top 8 of the Billboard Blues Album Charts. Jeremiah Johnson is a 2022 Blues Music Award Nominee for the best blues rock album, Unemployed Highly Annoyed.

His performance starts at 4 p.m.

HF-L girls soccer bows to top seed in sectionals

BY DONNA MACKENZIE

The Honeoye Falls-Lima Girls Varsity Soccer team shut out its first opponent in the Section V Tournament, but the Lady Cougars could not pull off an upset of the top seed in the quarterfinals.

HF-L, seeded eighth, routed #9 Eastridge 7-0 on October 18 in the first round of the Section V Class A Tournament. The Lady Cougars dominated the game from start to finish. Kyleigh Dudley led the way with two goals. Natalia Carlson scored one goal and added three assists. Jenna Lawrence finished with one goal and one assist. Katie Adams tallied one goal. Brinley Cross notched one goal. Madeline Mehring popped in one goal. Avery Rennoldson, Bria Torpey and Lyndsey Zuber chipped in one assist apiece. Goalie Caroline Smith was called upon to make only one save.

The Lady Cougars played hard but lost to #1 seed Aquinas 5-0 on October 21 in the Class A quarterfinals. HF-L held the Little Irish off the scoreboard for the first eight minutes of the game when Aquinas netted its first goal. The Cougars then stymied the Little Irish for another 14 minutes until Aquinas scored with 18 minutes left in the first half for a 2-0 lead. The Little Irish scored their third goal with 10 minutes remaining in the first half and held that 3-0 advantage at halftime. Aquinas scored its fourth and fifth goals eight minutes apart with around 18 minutes and 10 minutes left in the game. Smith handled eight saves in goal for the Cougars.

“The girls worked hard and played hard this season,” coach Paige Smith said. “They improved their play throughout the season. We had three losses by one goal and two others by two goals, so we were competitive in our games. We are looking forward to a core group of returners next season.”

HF-L finished with a 5-11-2 record. There were only two seniors on the squad.

Katie Adams concluded a three-year varsity career. A co-captain, Adams played either in the midfield or at forward and recorded three goals (third on the team) and two assists (second on the team).

Avery Rennoldson played on the varsity for two seasons. A co-captain, Rennoldson was either a defender or a midfielder and had one goal with two assists (second on the team) while helping HF-L to six shutouts.

HF-L girls swimmers fall to Canandaigua in final league meet

BY DONNA MACKENZIE

The Honeoye Falls-Lima Girls Varsity Swim team had some highlights in its last dual league meet of the season but its opponent had more depth and took the win over the Cougars, denying the squad the opportunity to win a league divisional title.

HF-L lost 102-84 to Canandaigua on October 17. The team opened the meet with a victory in the 200 medley relay by the quartet of Natalie Gilbert, Ava Stefanou, Ella Beutner and Kathryn McRae with a time of 2 minutes, 4.43 seconds. Gilbert turned a winning time of 2:08.93 in the 200 freestyle with Casey Pribanich finishing fifth (2:49.26). Beutner finished second at 2:34.84 and Addy Boggio third at 2:42.44 in the 200 individual medley. McRae won the 50 freestyle in 26.41 seconds while Olivia Cardot claimed fourth at 29.02 seconds. Cardot accumulated 165.25 points for second and Isabel Torres 146.55 points for fourth in diving. Beutner and Pribanich went 3-5 in the 100 butterfly with Beutner recording a time of 1:06.54 and Pribanich 1 minute, 55.39 seconds. McRae churned the water for a winning time of 57.44 seconds in the 100 freestyle and Torres took fifth in the event at 1 minute, 16.47 seconds. Stefanou clocked 6:07.40 for a victory in the 500 freestyle with Boggio right behind in second (6:09.62). Beutner, Torres, Cardot and Elisabeth Kenny came in second with a time of 2:01.87 in the 200 freestyle relay. Gilbert won the 100 backstroke with a time of 1:06.96 while Kenny posted a time of 1:24.91 for fourth. Stefanou claimed a win with a 1:20.84 in the 100 breaststroke and Siobhan Neenan clocked 1:52.43 for fifth. Gilbert, Boggio, McRae and Stefanou won the 400 freestyle relay (4:02.16).

“We had three quadruple winners with Natalie taking the 200 free and 100 back along with being on two winning relays, Kathryn winning the 50 free and 100 free and being on two winning relays and Ava winning the 500 free and the 100 breaststroke and being on two winning relays,” coach Ari Freedman-Weiss said. “McRae had some tough races. In the 100 free, she beat a girl who had a better seed time. Going 1-2 in the 500 free was huge as well. Canandaigua has a lot more swimmers and their depth was the difference.”

The Lady Cougars entered swimmers in six events at the Monroe County Coaches Invitational on October 20. HF-L’s quartet of Cardot, Neenan, Torres and Pribanich finished sixth with a time of 2:33.87 in the 200 medley relay. Torres placed 26th at 31.49 seconds and Pribanich 33rd at 32.79 seconds in the 50 free. Cardot garnered a 1:05.08 for fifth and Torres a 1:13.26 for 35th in the 100 free. HF-L football rolls to win over Dansville/Wayland-Cohocton

While most high school football fans probably were already looking forward to another “Clash of the Titans” between the Honeoye Falls-Lima Varsity Football team and arch-rival Batavia in the semifinals, Cougar coach John Russ wasn’t looking past HF-L’s quarterfinal opponent. He made sure his players were not doing that either since Dansville/Wayland-Cohocton held HF-L scoreless in the first quarter of the teams’ meeting on October 14 and actually held a 3-0 lead after the opening quarter of that game.

The #2 seed Cougars got on the scoreboard in the first quarter and quickly squashed any hopes of a DWC comeback with four more touchdowns in the second quarter, including a back-breaker with six seconds remaining before halftime as they roared to a 42-14 victory over #7 seed Dansville/Wayland-Cohocton 42-14 in the Section V Class B quarterfinal on October 27.

HF-L’s defense forced DWC to go three-and-out on its first possession and got the ball in great field position on the ensuing punt. Starting at the Cougar 40 yard line, HF-L quarterback Matt Meacham threw a dart to Keaton Yates on the first play from scrimmage for a six-yard pickup. After an incomplete pass, Ben Cook gained three yards on a run up the middle. A penalty on DWC gave the Cougars five yards and a first down. A Cook run resulted in a one-yard loss, but Meacham gained that back and more with an 11-yard completion to Alex Steinhoff on the left side to move the ball to the DWC 36. Meacham’s screen pass to Landon Hammond on the left side went for eight yards and Meacham followed that with a six-yard screen pass to Andrew Wanzenried on the right side. After an incomplete pass, Meacham ran for five yards and then connected with Hammond on a screen pass to the right for eight more, down to the DWC 9. Conor Finn’s run gained five yards. After a Cook run resulted in no gain, Meacham capped the 14-play drive by finding Wanzenried in the back of the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass. Meacham’s point-after kick was good, giving the Cougars a 7-0 lead with 4:25 left in the first quarter.

DWC’s second possession of the night totaled nine plays before they had to punt to the Cougars. Unfortunately, Meacham was intercepted to end that drive but the offense was not off the field for long. On DWC’s sixth play of its third possession, Cougar senior linebacker Aaron Fasick intercepted a pass when the ball bounced off a DWC receiver and rambled 28 yards to the DWC 16 before being tackled. HF-L needed only three plays to punch the ball into the end zone with Cook gaining eight yards and seven yards on two runs before Harrison Houle scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Meacham’s extra-point kick was good and the Cougars led 14-0 with 7:51 remaining in the second quarter. It was just the warm-up for the rest of the second quarter.

“Our defense really set the tone of the game, forcing them to punt after three plays on their

HF-L cross country runners prepare for sectionals

BY DONNA MACKENZIE

The Honeoye Falls-Lima Varsity Cross Country team members did very well at the Monroe County Coaches’ Invitational on October 21 with many of them running their best times of the season. For all but seven of the boys and seven of the girls, this was the last race of the year as only seven runners will compete for each team at sectionals.

On the girls side, HF-L’s varsity “A” girls finished eighth with 181 points of the 19 schools at the meet. Kate Brennan led the Lady Cougars with a time of 19 minutes, 0.2 seconds for sixth. Irene Sesnie clocked 19:46.4 for 20th place. Jayne Williams came in 51st with a time of 20:31. Emily Fay was 54th at 20:36.7 over the 5-kilometer first drive and after nine plays on their second and then Aaron intercepting the ball,” Russ said. “We struggled to score against them in the first quarter of our previous meeting and they have a good quarterback; they only lost to Batavia by six. The touchdown in the first quarter and especially our touchdowns in the second quarter were big for us. We stressed all week to the kids about getting off to a quicker start than we did the first time against them.”

HF-L’s defense held DWC to just three plays on its fourth possession. After the punt, the Cougars started their drive at their own 29. Finn ripped off a 28-yard run, starting up the middle before cutting to his left and down the sideline to the DWC 43. Meacham was sacked for a loss of seven yards, but Cook caught a screen pass and turned it into a 50 yard TD pass with a jaunt down the left sideline. A high snap on the following point-after attempt forced Meacham to attempt a wild throw that fell incomplete, leaving the Cougars with a 20-0 advantage with 4:58 remaining in the second quarter.

DWC was stifled once again by the Cougar defense. Steinhoff fielded the punt at his own 41 and, cutting to his left, returned it 42 yards to the DWC 17. Meacham connected with Wanzenried on a 17-yard TD pass in the back right corner of the end zone. Meacham’s extra-point kick was good and the Cougars increased their lead to 27-0 with 2:53 left in the second quarter.

Held to just three plays on the following possession, DWC tried a bit of trickery with a fake punt attempt, but the pass was incomplete. HF-L took over on the DWC 40. Steinhoff caught a 10-yard pass on the left side. On a pass completion from Meacham to Wanzenried, both teams were flagged for penalties on the play. HF-L was hit with a holding penalty while DWC was flagged for a personal foul after a late hit with the result that the ball was placed at the DWC 29. Meacham went right back to Wanzenried on the next play for a 23-yard pickup. After a Meacham run of two yards, he connected with Yates on the left side for a four-yard touchdown pass with six seconds left in the second quarter. After the extra-point kick was no good, HF-L went into halftime with a 33-0 advantage.

The Cougars recovered an onside kick by DWC on the opening kickoff of the second half. HF-L started its sixth and final TD drive of the game at its own 45. Meacham found Wanzenried on a slant play over the middle for 15 yards. Finn gained 16 yards on a run to the left side. Houle gained three yards on a run up the middle. A Finn run lost two yards, but Meacham hooked up with Steinhoff over the middle for 12 yards to the DWC 11. The Meacham-to-Wanzenried connection worked once more for an 11-yard TD pass. The extra-point kick missed and HF-L led 39-0 with 9:01 left in the third quarter. Finn’s interception on DWC’s first play from scrimmage on the following possession resulted in the Cougars’ final points. A 12-yard run by Finn and a seven-yard run by Cook put the ball at the DWC 19 and Meacham eventually drilled a 36-yard field goal for a 42-0 Cougar lead with 6:38 remaining in the third quarter. DWC scored its first touchdown on a 10-yard pass and an extra-point kick brought the score to 42-7 with 2:07 left in the third quarter. DWC’s final touchdown, a 30-yard run, and extra-point kick came in the fourth quarter with 9:28 remaining in the game.

“We played really well in all phases of the game, offense and defense and special teams,” Russ said. “We had just three penalties and that was great to see as well.”

HF-L piled up 324 yards of offense. Meacham went 18-for-22 passing for 235 yards. Wanzenried made eight catches for 96 yards. Cook had one reception for 50 yards, Hammond four for 44 yards, Steinhoff three for 34 yards and Yates two for 11 yards. Finn rushed four times for 59 yards. Cook carried six times for 25 yards. Meacham gained 12 yards on three carries and Houle four yards on three carries.

The defense had a great game, holding DWC to 134 total yards of offense with 105 of that on the ground. Fasick and Finn each snagged an interception.

HF-L faces #3 Batavia at 7 p.m. on November 3 in the Class B semifinals.

Cottage Hotel

matter how many times you’ve heard it, Paul said, “Those are my two ‘Eye’ songs because, you know, they always come in pairs.”

Next Brian Venton joined the stage to make it a trio. At this point we will defer to Karen’s The Cottage Songbook for her concise bio backstory on these last two men who have joined Paul Strowe on stage...

In 1977, when he was 17, Brian Venton began performing at The Cottage as the lead of the group Autumn Skies. That spring the band made a 45 record that attracted an agent, Pelican Productions, and for two years they played all over New York state. The Cottage was their first professional gig, and later on, they also played regularly at the Mason Jar, and numerous other venues across western New York.

From the early ‘80s, Brian created a succession of bands such as NIK & The Nice Guys, The Boss Street Band, and Keys to the Caddy. But his favorite gig was always the Cottage Hotel.

A chance meeting with Jeff Clark in 2018 led Brian to form the acoustic-rock Venton Clark Band, that now play at The Cottage once a month along with Steve Krauss (of Mendon) on drums and sometimes additional musicians.

Venton, Clark and Strowe started with America’s “Ventura Highway” and then, at least in terms of dancing, filled the floor with the evening’s most infectious audience participation number. It was Pure Prairie League’s “Amie” (... what you gonna do?, I think I could stay with you, for a while maybe longer if I do). Don Shaffer joined the festivities next with a British shout-out including The Moody Blues’ “In Your Wildest Dreams” and the Beatles’ “You’re Gonna Lose That Girl.”

As Paul worked his way through the roster of guest musicians a personal highlight was when singer and harmonica player Billy Lee ascended the stage. Billy is a Vietnam vet who cut his musical teeth on a soulful Chicago upbringing. Billy and Paul harmonized on a moving rendition of the Temptations’ “My Girl” and closed their duet with a rousing version of Wilson Pickett’s “Mustang Sally.” No one was going to slow that Mustang down!

Next, responding to the demand of, “We need some John Prine,” Bob Spiegle brought some down-home country classics to the stage next with his versions of “Knockin’ on Your Screen Door” and “Please Don’t Bury Me.”

Paul was next joined by his younger brother Chip Strowe who had everybody rockin’ around the clock with “Blue Suede Shoes.”

One of the more endearing performances of the evening came when Janet Burgwardt accompanied Paul doing a sign language version of the Tommy James and the Shondells’ “I Think We’re Alone Now.” Those of a younger generation may recall a later hit version by pop star Tiffany.

One of Paul’s last numbers was a toon that we always love to hear him do, namely the Tokens’ “The Lion Sleeps Tonight.” It’s not just the vocal precision you hear when he hits all the high notes, it’s also the way he recreates all of the jungle sounds and the hootin’ & hollerin’ you hear on the original record. Probably took a quartet of singers and a synthesizer to get that sound in the studio, but for “the human jukebox” it’s just a song in the life of a one-man band.

At this point the stage was turned over to the legendary local group Slipton Fell. Again, we will defer to Karen’s The Cottage Songbook for a concisely well-written band bio... Slipton Fell was formed by Pittsford-Mendon High School students Chris Cady, Steve Anderson, Mark DeAngelis, Dave Knight, and Jeff Decker, who added many original tunes to their repertoire. Their original songs plus excellent covers of Grateful Dead, Tom Petty, and Little Feat songs kept us all rocking. When Mark and Dave left the band, Joe West and Don Torpy became members. Sadly, Jeff Decker died in 2004 and Mark DeAngelis in 2021. Dave’s daughter, Jessie Knight, joined them in 2012, as did Chris’ niece, Kit Cady. Their newest member since 2022 is Korie Pettee. Slipton Fell officially played as a band from August 13, 1978 to New Year’s Eve in 1981—only 3 1/2 years—but since 1982 they have played reunions and continue to do so today.

Steve Anderson led off with the acknowledgement that “Playing at the Cottage was the best idea I ever had in my life! We have played on this stage since 1978.” And in tribute to that legacy the first song they played was “(You Never Feel Alone) at the Cottage Hotel” followed by another local classic “Powder Mill.” We plan on closing this article with some lyrics from “(You Never Feel Alone) at the Cottage Hotel” so we’ll share a snippet from “Powder Mill” down below. But we will at this point share the fact that Karen Mireau was literally brought to tears by Slipton Fell’s performance of their “Cottage” song. She had never heard them play it live before and it made for one of the more memorable moments of the weekend. So here’s a Memory Lane moment from the other local song...

*Walk with us into the summer.
Meet us down at Powder Mill.
We’ll drink some beers, count the years.
We love you now, and always will.*

FRIDAY ~ After such an eventful Thursday evening we woke up Friday looking to put together a time frame for Friday’s component of the 200th anniversary festivities which was to be headlined by the band Buffalo Rose. They are a national touring band who defines their genre as “Americana Folk” and, although we had never seen them live before, an exhaustive analysis of their many YouTube videos had put us in the position to know that they were really good.

They are based in Pittsburgh, and their very unique connection to The Cottage Hotel is that their dobro and guitar player Malcom “Mac” Inglis grew up on Parrish Road. When he sauntered onto the stage Friday night he was returning to the venue that was, “my very first time ever performing on stage.” Those historic performances occurred during Sunday “Open Mic Nights” when he was actually tending bar at the Cottage so everyone in attendance was truly witnessing one of those magical “Circle of Life” moments.

We sent an email to band leader Shane McLaughlin asking about the Buffalo Rose setlist and schedule for the day. He wrote back, “Hey Tim and Deb, We don’t have a setlist quite yet, but I will send it to you once our bass player writes one up! We are going to do one long set, probably between 75-90 minutes. Hoping to start between 9:00 and 9:30. We will be kind of rushing to get there so we will start as soon as we are set up and sound checked. Thank you so much for taking the time to run and write this story. It is making the show even more special!”

Everything came off pretty much as scheduled and everyone there, including many of Mac’s friends and family, enjoyed yet another stellar evening being added to the Cottage’s legacy of live music. Buffalo Rose is a charismatic six-piece modern folk/Americana band. They take the singer-songwriter tradition to a new level by crafting original songs which are emotive, meticulously arranged, and inspired by a world of idiosyncratic influences that never let a dull or predictable moment creep in. Delicate and wild, thorny and untamed, Buffalo Rose weaves spiraling harmonies and gorgeously layered instrumentation into a captivating tapestry.

While we had seen Mac perform at the Cottage Open Mic Nights back in the day, and spoken with him on the phone during the process of writing our articles that preceded the show, we had never had the opportunity to sit down for a face-to-face conversation with him which was a nice bonus to the evening’s events. The entire band was excited about having had the opportunity to participate in this special homecoming event for Mac Inglis. After the show they pulled everyone back on stage for the picture of us with the band. SATURDAY ~ When we walked into the Cottage on Saturday evening the joint was already hopping. Slipton Fell had returned to the stage where they first played in 1978 and were surrounded by a throng of their fans, friends and families who have supported them over the years. Their rendition of “(You’ll Never Feel Alone) at

The Cottage Hotel” had everyone in the bar singing along. The line, “The prettiest girls are at The Cottage Hotel” prompted shout-outs of virtually unanimous agreement.

They were followed by the Son Henry Band who, joined by Slipton Fell’s Chris Cady, delighted the crowd with their raucous set of classic rock and country. The dance floor was filled and the conga line was weaving throughout the room.

While sitting with Hilary Stott, she noticed Chris Cady on stage and made the comment, “This is what the Cottage is all about. It’s a generational thing; it’s all about family. Chris is up their playing with his second band of the night. His daughter Emily has come from Irondequoit to see him and has brought his granddaughter Nava Murgatroyd.” At that point Hilary orchestrated the tri-generational photo.

Continuing to share her thoughts, Hilary went on to define her vision of what is the prevailing philosophy of The Cottage Hotel. “Let me explain the perception I instill in my employees during training,” Hilary said. “I tell them, ‘the people sitting in the chairs here are not the guests, you are. The Cottage belongs to its patrons. Their parents came here before them, they’re here now, and if their children aren’t here with them they will be someday. It is the philosophy of The Cottage Hotel that its patrons are the true owners.’”

As promised, we are going to fade out of our 200th anniversary celebration with select lines from Slipton Fell’s “(You’ll Never Feel Alone) at The Cottage Hotel.”

*Hey, it’s me. I’m at the Cottage.
Yeah that’s right. I know, big surprise.
So many roads we have travelled,
The children have all grown
But sittin’ here at this bar, it still feels like home.*

*So raise your glass.
A toast to our lost loved ones.
May they always walk among us.
Be our shining light.
Every person here tonight has a story to tell.
You’ll never be alone at the Cottage Hotel.*

Town & Village Update

Mayor, Supervisor Weekly Update As Of Friday, October 27th Lima Water District 5, Rush-Henrietta Combine Assessor

Village of Honeoye Falls

Dan Harris, Village Trustee

“So thanks for having us, and thanks for helping us connect with all of our residents and get the word out of what’s going on in the municipality and our neighbors. You know, as far as what’s going to go on the next couple of weeks, while the trustees fill in on these calls, we’re going to kind of give you an overview of our areas of focus. And I’m sure this is true for a lot of the boards out there, that the board or trustee members have certain liaison functions.”

“My liaison function is with the Honeoye Falls Mendon Volunteer Ambulance and it’s kind of unique. It’s a pretty big undertaking for the Village. It’s the only municipal run agency in Monroe County. It’s a mixed volunteer and paid department. And typically, unlike what might be going on at CHS and the other big providers in the area to our north, like in Henrietta, we have about one crew in the base at one time, that sort of fits with our call volume. It’s about 66% funded by patient revenue, and the remaining one third is sort of shared between the Town of Mendon, the Village of Honeoye Falls and part of West Bloomfield. It’s like I said, a big big undertaking for the Village. About 25% of our operating budget goes towards running the ambulance. It’s about 1,100 or 1,300 calls per year which is double what the chief was covering when he started as chief about 10 plus years ago. A lot of great updates in the last couple of months; we’ve been making some progress after a really hard time through the pandemic. Like all of the EMS agencies, commercial and otherwise, it was a tough time, and we’re starting to see some positive improvement as we recover from some of those stressors. We’ve been able to fill 2 full time paramedic positions that’ll really help with some holes that we’ve had at times in our schedule. It’s a huge win, we got some very highly talented folks that have been per diems for us in the past.”

“We also received a New York State Crest Grant to cover the cost of a replacement ambulance. And we’re going to have a big check ceremony here in November to celebrate. The award of that grant is really significant for us. The corporations, that’s kind of like the volunteers that support the agency. They’re independent from the Village, but they do support the same operational budget were able to secure funding for a power green and also power load system and some other equipment. The chiefs all got together in Monroe County, and we’re able to work together and secure some funding for educational opportunities for new providers. Beause again, one of the big things is trying to find talent, and there’s just not a lot of folks out there. Very competitive with other demands like nursing, or working in the hospitals, that sort of pulls on the people, that same talent base.”

“So, in terms of challenges and things that we’re going to be working on over the next several months is obviously maintaining and attracting talent, so that we can really cover that really high call volume. And then, as we are sort of at the corner of 3 counties, (Monroe, Livingston and Ontario) that’s 3 different dispatch systems that we have to interact with. Monroe County has recently switched to a computer-aided dispatch system that is still getting some bugs worked out of it. and so, working on blending those systems together with our operations has been a challenge. But we’re making some progress. And we need to work with the 911 dispatch centers to work through some of those

Mike Falk, Supervisor:

“Hello! Thanks for having us again. Just a reminder for early voting in Livingston County there is only one polling place, and that is at the Government Center at 6 Court Street, down in Geneseo. It began yesterday, which is Saturday, October 28 and runs through Sunday, November 5 from 9 am to 5pm every day, except for Wednesday, November 1, when it’s 8am to 4pm. Thursday, November 2 is 8am to 8pm, Friday, November 3, 8am to 4pm. You can check the Board of Elections website on the Livingston County webpage if you need further details. They will be set up; expect to go in the main entrance through the metal detectors, and then you’ll be guided down one floor to go to where they’re doing the voting.”

“So, the moment you’ve all been waiting for: the Water District 5 petitions have all been turned in. They are being counted. The official results are not yet available, however unofficially, there are not enough signatures to pass. That said, the months and months of hard work to get every one of the landowners access to the petition has paid off in spades. Now you might think, why is that? Well, that is because now we have the absolute best map possible of where water is wanted and where water is not wanted. Add that map to the water testing, which we did, where the results indicated that water is needed due to lead contamination and arsenic, and the other things that were found and we have a much clearer picture of what is needed to be done.”

“The other opportunity that has arisen and I attended a meeting on it this past Friday, is that there is an opportunity to connect to the Livingston County Water and Sewer Authority source for the Village of Lima and the Town of Avon which would be coming right through the Town of Lima. This will provide an alternative water source for all 3 entities. For the Village of Lima water customers, this means cheaper water. For the Town of Lima Water Districts 2 and 4 which is 15A north of the village and Tupelo Trail, this will also mean cheaper water. Now, if we combine a revised Water District 5 map with the Village connection, we’ll have the best possible workable project that we could want. Of course, it does take time to set up a project like this. So, while the current Town Board will be responsible to consider it, and consider starting it, it will be the 2024 Board that will actually have to finish the project and get it going. I believe that we can all solidify behind cheaper water for the Village customers, cheaper water for Town Districts 2 and 4, and water for those who really want and need it. The official results will be at the Town Board meeting on November 7 which is also Election Day at 6pm on the top floor of the Town Hall. And remember, if you’re voting in Lima, you’ll be voting in the boardroom on the first floor of the Town Hall, November 7.”

logistics and operational things. Some of it comes down to just having good maps of what the speed limit is in different parts of the County and updating those. So that’s kind of the high level of what’s going on with the ambulance as far as in the Village as a whole.”

“Just a message from the DPW side is that, like everyone else, leaves are falling and our leaf pickup crews are in high gear. We’ve got to get all of that done before the snow starts flying because it’s the same trucks that do the leaf pickup for the Village that do snow plowing and salting. Make sure that you get ahead of your leaf pickup if you’re in the Village. Get them to the curb before the snow starts falling, and that’s all I have.”

Town of Henrietta

Stephen Schultz, Supervisor:

“Good afternoon. So, the big news is that the Towns of Rush and Henrietta have entered into a coordinated assessment program. where there will be one assessor who covers both towns and the 2 towns will be treated as a single entity from a level of assessment standpoint. Today Henrietta has a full-time assessor and Rush has a part time assessor. So, this one individual replaces both those positions. The new program has a number of benefits. First, it saves both towns money, because the salary for the combined position is less than the sum of the individual salaries that would be paid to each Town assessor. Second, it saves Rush additional money, since they have had to go external to do reevaluations, whereas Henrietta has done most of their reevaluation work in house, and that would continue. It also helps Rush residents, since today their assessor only has office hours in Rush for 4 hours a week and while that schedule isn’t changing, if a Rush resident wants to set up an appointment for their assessor outside of those 4 hours they could choose any other time of the week and would only have to make the 10 min drive up to the Henrietta Town Hall. So today they don’t have that option. And finally, it will help the school district when they are looking at what the effect of a proposed budget will have on the tax rate, since there will now be a single level assessment across the 2 towns, so it will always be the same tax rate. Today, if the 2 towns have a different level assessment, which is the case almost every year, they have to calculate a different tax rate. It makes it harder to calculate, but even more so difficult to explain to residents. So, this will make that a lot clearer and more transparent for residents when the school is talking about the budget. So, we think it’s beneficial all around. Both Town Boards passed the agreement. It takes effect November 16. We’ve already posted for the job, and anyone interested should go to henrietta.org/jobs.”

“The new Town Court’s progressing well. It was funny, some people were joking, that ‘Why are we building a purple court?’ which just happened to be the color of the insulation foam boards. They said, ‘The town color is blue.’ Well, wouldn’t you know later that same week they started wrapping it with the vapor barrier which happened to be blue. So, I wrote back to them. It was on Facebook. I wrote back and said, ‘See, answered your problem. We’re turning the court blue.’ The roof is going up as in the roofing material, so it should be watertight soon. The interior framing is all up, so once it’s watertight, they’ll be able to start doing electrical work and stuff like interior installation. We’re still on schedule for end of spring, early summer opening for the new Town Court.”

“We presented our tentative budget and decided as a board to include a $200,000 increase in the tax levy, which represents about a 4% increase over last year. This is our first increase in 5 years, or arguably 6 since the library referendum was passed. Health insurance costs and New York State retirement costs have both increased by double digits. That’s where we’re really getting hit hard. In addition, even though library costs have risen, state aid for the library has not. As such, towns are having to pick up more and more of those costs through property taxes. And of course, we’ve had steady increases over the years that we’ve been able to cover through windfall sales tax revenues. But our town’s grown in those 6 years, and we’ve added additional people in Highway and Grounds to deal with the new properties. That’s begun to catch up to us. So, we could actually have covered it with fund balance this year, but it would have meant we wouldn’t have had a whole lot of fund balance to apply to next year’s budget, so it would have meant a much larger increase next year. The Board decided that it was time to increase the levy, as that would mean a smaller increase this year and not a big impact next year. So, I will know that this increase is independent of the additional increase that would occur if the Spray Park referendum passes. In that case the plan would be to raise the levy by $300,000, or about 6%. The Spray Park itself calls for a $200,000 increase. If we’re going to put that in, we would cut the other increase in half so as to minimize the impact on taxpayers.”

“Finally, the new lighting for the refurbished basketball, tennis and pickle ball courts is now operational, and we’ve been seeing a lot of evening use on all 3 of the court systems. All 3 sports. They’re energy efficient dark sky compliant lights. So, it was interesting. I was coming out of Town Hall at the end of our rather long Town Board meeting, and it was just before the park was closing, so the lights were still on. I was

About This Feature:

Each Friday, the SENTINEL invites the mayors and supervisors from the towns and villages it covers to participate in a video call that airs every Sunday at 1pm on our Facebook page and YouTube channel. The edited transcript of that call appears on this page. We don’t require participation, as many of these elected officials have full-time jobs outside their political office. We do ask them, if they would like to, to email us an update so we can include it on this page. Here is the complete list of invited municipalities:

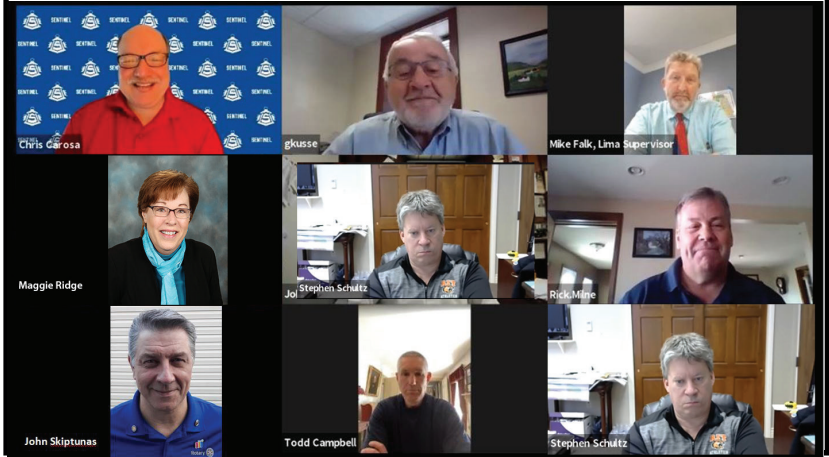

Towns: Avon, East Bloomfield, Henrietta, Lima, Mendon, Pittsford, Rush, West Bloomfield, Wheatland

very pleasantly surprised at how minimal their impact was. So, they light up the court really well, you could see that they’re there, but like they don’t shine, they’re not bright in your eyes or anything like that. So, these new modern LED lights with their ability to really control where they cast the lights are a great addition.”

“The other good news in that regards is the Public Service Commission finally approved the purchase of all of our street lights from RG&E so we’re in the process of taking those over. We’re going to replace them with the newer, more efficient LED lights. And the great news is all that is being done through something called an energy performance contract, which basically means it’s all being paid for out of the energy savings and the contractors that are doing the work guarantee that so the point is, if we don’t see enough savings to cover the cost, they have to make up the difference. So, it’s a great way to get about 4 million dollars of lighting upgrades at no expense to the taxpayer. They’re essentially done as a lease to own and the lease again is being paid for through the energy savings from the use of the new equipment. So that’s it.”

SPECIAL 2023 MEET THE CANDIDATES:

Meet the Candidates 2023: Town of Mendon

Town Supervisor (Vote for one)

John D. Moffitt (R, C) - Incumbent

Which party are you registered with?
Republican

How long have you lived in Mendon?
20+ years

Bio: A lifelong Mendon resident, I'm proud to serve as your Town Supervisor. I'm involved in my family's local business, Dipper Dan. I've been a volunteer for HFL-Mendon Youth Baseball, serving in a variety of capacities over 40+ years, including President, but my favorite was coach. I live on Ontario St., where my family has lived in the same home for 100+ years, with my wife, Carol, recently retired after 25 years at HF-L School. I'm honored to work each day to keep Mendon a place we're all proud to call home.

Why should someone vote for you? As your Town Supervisor for the past 14 years, I've never lost focus of my top priority: Taxpayers. I've worked to provide tax stability, quality services, and preserve the character of our Town. I'm proud to deliver a stable tax rate for Village & Town taxpayers and build a new Splash Park. I will continue to keep more money in the pockets of our residents and keep our Town a great place for all families to live!

Town Council (Vote for any two)

Thomas Dubois (R, C) - Incumbent

Which party are you registered with?
Republican

How long have you lived in Mendon?
20+ years

Bio: I've lived in Mendon for 30 years with my wife Judy where we raised our two sons Ryan and Nate. Throughout my years I have volunteered as a scout leader, coached youth sports, was a board member of Mendon baseball, served on the Parish Council at St. Catherine's and was on the board of a local not-for-profit that serves Vets. When I retired from a 35-year career in advertising 5 years ago, I started driving a bus for the HFL school district and it is honestly the best job that I've ever had.

Why should someone vote for you? I feel that representing local residents on the Mendon Town Board, while being an honor, is also a large responsibility. I also realize the best way to represent the community is to be an active member. I will continue to participate in school, community and social events in town and as always, seek out opinions from members of the community before voting in the board room. I look forward to continuing my focus on families as I have in the past 8 years with my work for the Mendon Youth Center.

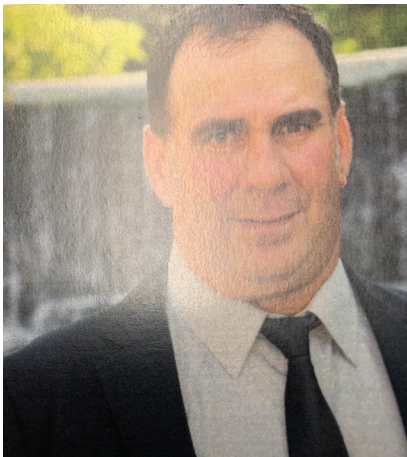

Town Highway Superintendent (Vote for one)

Andrew G. Caschetta (R, C) - Incumbent

Which party are you registered with?
Republican

How long have you lived in Mendon?
20+ years

Bio: I have lived in Mendon for 20 years, and I take great pride in serving our community as Highway Superintendent. After working along side, and taking over after the retirement of Bud Smith in 2019, I have more than 23 years experience. Including 6 years as Foreman, and 2 years as Deputy Highway Superintendent in Mendon, and well over 17 years as an equipment operator. Over the years I have developed great relationships with most of the vendors required to do the job. I also serve on the Board of [Editor's Note: Respondent exceeded 500 character limit]

Why should someone vote for you? As Highway Superintendent, it's my top priority to ensure our Town roads are safe, well-maintained and preserved, all while keeping taxes low, and quality high. This includes everything from routine and preventative maintenance, major reconstruction, drainage, and snow and ice removal. I have the knowledge and am able to execute the New York State and Monroe County Snow and Ice Contracts, Monroe County Summer Road work program, and the New York State Consolidated Highway Improvement Program [Editor's Note: Respondent exceeded 500 character limit]

Town Supervisor (Vote for one)

Michelle S. Booth (R, C) - Incumbent

Which party are you registered with?
Republican

How long have you lived in Mendon?
20+ years

Bio: My name is Michelle Booth. I started working, part-time for the Town of Mendon, as the Court Clerk in 2015. I became full-time a short time after, by adding the titles of, Secretary to the Assessor, Clerk to the Building Department, and Secretary for the Planning and Zoning Boards. I was born and raised in Wayland. After graduating, I obtained my Business Degree. My husband and I have lived in Honeoye Falls for about 20 years. We have four children and three grandchildren.

Why should someone vote for you? I love the small town feel here in Mendon; that people go above and beyond to help each other. We run fundraisers, meal trains, and abide by the "it takes a village" mentality. And in truth, growing up in cornfields, on softball diamonds, at school events, and of course, never missing the Mendon Fireman's Carnival is the only home our kids' know. I hope they grow up to be proud of it too! I plan to keep this type of culture in the office while implementing modern technology to help residents.

Town Council (Vote for any two)

Kimberly L. Roberts (R, C)

Why should someone vote for you? As a long-term employee of the HF-L School District, in an outreach position, I am very sensitive to the unique needs of our community. In addition to the above, I know the people of our community well and can build on these strong, existing relationships. I am a steadfast advocate for our community, both professionally and personally. I understand how to leverage my experience to best achieve our goals and uphold our shared values. Town Justice (Vote for one)

Stephen A. Maxon (R, C)

Which party are you registered with?
Republican

How long have you lived in Mendon?
1-10 years

Bio: An upstate NY native, I moved to Rochester after graduating from Syracuse Law in 2007. My lovely wife Alexis and I came to Mendon in 2015, and it's been a great place to raise our six children. I've coached three youth sports, volunteered on the Town Environmental Conservation Board and Zoning Board of Appeals (and HFL's budget advisory council), and served as a worship leader and elder at our church. I recently earned an MBA from Simon Business School, achieving the highest GPA in the program.

Why should someone vote for you? I've spent 16 years with our region's appellate court: the Fourth Department. Working many of that Court's most difficult cases, I provide its judges with recommendations they rely on – and adopt nearly 90% of the time. I help manage 25 attorneys in the court's legal research department and lecture on ethics at the Court's annual training program. My entire career in the judicial system has been devoted to achieving a just outcome in every case. If elected, I vow to do the same from the bench.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Write-In Candidate for Mendon Highway Superintendent introduces himself

First let me say thank you for reaching out to find out who I am and what brings me to this challenge. I was asked to run as a write-in candidate for the position by a handful of people in the community just a few weeks ago. This certainly was after the time line for a primary vote. At that time the explanation was that Andy Caschetta was not providing a positive image for that position as a town leader. When Bud Smith retired a few years ago, I did interview for the job but was not selected, that's when they chose Andy.

Way back in the old days, my family moved to Honeoye Falls when I was starting kindergarten. At the time, my mother was a high school physical education teacher.

I then attended McQuaid for grades 8-12 graduating in 1974. Prior to graduation, I enlisted in the Army under the delayed entry program. I served 2 yrs active and 2 in the Army Reserves as a finance specialist. While in the reserves, I attended MCC under the GI Bill studying fire protection technology. In Dec of 1976, I joined the Honeoye Falls Fire Dept. Moving through the ranks and served as Chief from 1985 thru 1987. Continuing to take civil service test, competitive challenges in firefighting jobs made this not practical career path. Currently I'm serving on the board of directors as a warden with HFFD. I'm also a member of American Legion Post 664.

I then went to plan B, obtaining a chauffeur's license and worked for Duncan Milk Hauling and Rush Gravel. Within a few years, I started hauling construction equipment for Mendon Enterprises and The Bell Corp. In 1995 I went into business for myself operating Shamrock Equipment Trans until 2015. I built a business serving approximately 125 contractors and dealers. Currently I'm driving for Johncox Trucking in Avon. Throughout this time, I obtained my EMT certification and held various positions including Chief of Operations for Honeoye Falls Mendon Ambulance where I am also a life member.

Going back, in 1981 I married the girl from across the creek, Nancy Matthews. We built our home on Sibley Rd. in 1984 and I still live there today.

In 1987 we were blessed with a son, PJ. He has pursued a career as a firefighter/paramedic with the Barnard Fire District and works part time for Irondequoit Ambulance as a paramedic. This past May, my wife passed after a quick, hard battle with uterine cancer.

My goals as Highway Superintendent are pretty simple. Be more aggressive with snow removal and ice control but not doing the bare minimum but to exceed your expectations. Maintain and improve relations within village and town organizations. Create a more positive work environment. Have open communication with residents and address their concerns and needs. Promise fiscal responsibility. Keep spending within the guidelines of budget parameters. To help facilitate this, I would not take the proposed increase in salary.

I believe I have a very solid resume, a strong work ethic, take pride in family values and continue to be 110% committed to our community. Peter Doyle, Write-in Candidate for Mendon Highway Superintendent

Meet the Candidates 2023: Town of Lima

Town Council (Vote for any two)

Christine Steerman (D)

Which party are you registered with?
Democrat

How long have you lived in Lima? 20+ years

Bio: I am a psychologist who moved to Lima in 2016. My understanding is that a town council's job is the business of running Lima; to be fiscally responsible, to help Lima stay a healthy going concern, to both listen and answer the concerns of residents. It is understandable that many people have a low opinion of and distrust politicians. That being said, I am amazed at how welcoming people have been when I come to their doors with my campaign talk. It is important to me to be straightforward, ho [Editor's Note: Respondent exceeded 500 character limit]

Why should someone vote for you? I suggest that people listen to all the candidates and vote for the person(s) they believe have their best interests at heart, and will give them the “whole story” even if part of that story is messy. I hope to be that person. I strive to inform rather than convince, to find common ground rather than to win. I have a lot to learn when it comes to helping to run a town and promise to do the best I can for Lima. I am counting on the wisdom of those with experience in this area and am a fast learner [Editor's Note: Respondent exceeded 500 character limit]

Why should someone vote for you? I am motivated to move Lima forward without changing its heritage or charm. I am hard working, focused, collaborative, passionate, and results driven. I would like to see improvements and well needed initiatives in our town. We need to give more opportunity to Lima Residents to reduce food insecurity. I'm a proponent of Mental health and Addiction recovery resources. I also want to ensure we live in a safe community. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

West Bloomfield Town Council candidate introduces himself

I was nominate in the West Bloomfield/Ionia caucus to run for the open position on the West Bloomfield Town Board. My name will be on the Nov. ballot. (Democrats party). However the party doesn't define who I am.

I grew of in Bloomfield. My family has long roots in politics and I would like to follow in their footsteps. I am new in the political arena and always wanted to assist my neighbors working together with their voice on concerns to ensure our community has the future it should be.

Mary Marianacci was my grandmother who was tax collector for many years. My uncle Frank Marianacci was on the Bloomfield School Board and won the contract with his construction company regarding the Canandaigua National Banks.

My step father Richard Howes (Howes Collision on Route 5/20) married my mom Same name as my grandmother. You can see me working hard with customers at the Okay Beer on Friday and Saturday nights in Honeoye Falls.

Bio: I have lived in Rush almost my entire life. I live in a house I built with my wife, Susan my daughter, Emily and my grandson, Liam. I have 2 other children, Megan and Charlie. I have been on the Town Board for 12 years and have served as liaison to the Planning Board, the Zoning Board of Appeals, the Conservation Board and the Library Board. I filled in as Supervisor for 7 months in 2019. I also served as the head of the Building and Grounds Committee at St. Joseph's Church. For the past a [Editor's Note: Respondent exceeded 500 character limit]

Why should someone vote for you? I will bring stability to the Supervisor's office. Over the past 4 years we have had 7 Supervisor's secretaries and 4 financial officers. This has led to billing problems and missed deadlines. Town Board agendas don't come out in a timely fashion and change constantly. This makes preparation for meeting impossible. We need to supply all Town Board members with all the information needed to make decisions that benefit all Town residents.

Life with the (Word) Smiths

CELEBRATING THE 200TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE COTTAGE HOTEL

BY DEB AND TIM SMITH

The Cottage Hotel celebrated its 200th anniversary over the third weekend in October in a four-day event that brought a lot of laughter and a mountain of memories, as well as some tears of reflection regarding the venerable local gathering spot which has anchored the northeast corner of the hamlet of Mendon for the past two centuries.

We thought we'd reprise our opening of the series of articles we began in the beginning of October leading up to the anniversary celebration. Our opening harkened back to a meeting between author Karen Mireau and Cottage owner Hilary Stott in October of 2022 which was significant because had that not taken place, the 2023 anniversary celebration may or may not have happened, but even if it did, it would not have been replete with the accompanying release of the book The Cottage Hotel: The History & Untold Tales of Mendon Hamlet's Legendary Stagecoach Inn & Tavern.

We began this series with the following two paragraphs of mood-setting ambiance by writing...

As the sun slowly set at the Rush end of Rush Mendon Road, the fleeting rays of autumn sunshine began to creep below the protection offered by the fire-red umbrellas dutifully standing sentinel over the tables at The Cottage Hotel of Mendon. The two kindred and free-spirited women engaged in conversation on that fateful fall day were the current owner of the Cottage, Hilary Stott, and a former employee of the Cottage, Karen Mireau.

Among the many hats worn by Karen, it is in her current capacity of poet and author that the Spirit of Mendon's past has called her home from California to deliver on a destiny lying dormant for decades. This is a story both sparkling and spiritual, a tale we felt compelled to tell.

So getting back to that story, Karen's 2022 visit had been arranged so that she could connect with the Mendon people who could help her put the final touches on the book of poetry she had written which was titled Tell Me Again That the Dead Do Dream – The Mendon Poems. This collection of poems had been inspired by the people and events that Karen had experienced while living in Mendon and working at the Cottage during the late 1970s and early '80s.

The personal impact of these people and events was effectively terminated on October 19, 1981 when John Urquhart Ross, Karen's mentor and boss at the Cottage, lost his life to suicide. John Ross was universally known and addressed as "Burdock" – it was a different era.

About this tragic turn, Karen said, "It was 20 years before I could bring myself to drive down Route 64, no doubt because there were so many memories lying in wait. It took another 20 years to be able to set those experiences down in writing." She was finally able to accomplish this in her Mendon poetry book.

At any rate, during Karen's October 2022 visit to Mendon to put the finishing touches on the book, she engaged in the aforementioned meeting with current Cottage owner Hilary and at this point we'll invoke Karen's own words to pontificate upon what happened at that meeting... "I never expected to be writing this [newest] book until I had lunch with Hilary while I was researching a book of poetry about the Cottage and Burdock last October. In that meeting, she looked at me, tilted her head in typical Hilary fashion and said, 'You should be writing a @$%* history of The Cottage Hotel.'"

"In that moment of epiphany, it was as if a light had suddenly come on. That very day on October 19th (the anniversary of Burdock's death), I started doing the research, and voila, some nine months later, here we are! Rather like birthing a baby... without the epidural."

So now fast forward and you can't help but marvel at how the karma of Father Time aligns on this; it would be October 19, 2023, the 42nd anniversary of Burdock's death, that Karen would once again find herself at the Cottage to celebrate the release of her local history book about "Mendon Hamlet's Legendary Stagecoach Inn & Tavern."

The opening bell tolled on the four-day gala at 3:00 that Thursday with the Cottage hosting a gathering of special guests including musical acts that had performed over the years, former owners and their friends and family, local luminaries, and an array of collective Cottage cohorts. Every living former owner was in attendance.

Reflective of the lustre that luminated this celebration from beginning to end, things started with a bang. Karen had let us in on a superlative secret we'd been sitting on for a few months leading up to this event. As a special gift for Hilary and husband Dave Stott, she had written a third book about Mendon and the Cottage in which she compiled the lyrics and stories behind five different musical artists who had written songs about the Cottage over the years.

Called The Cottage Songbook, it is a 42-page tribute with lyrics you love because they're local and we will be excerpting select passages throughout the course of this article. We so wanted to share this storyline with our readers on the lead-in to Karen's visit but, of course, we couldn't because obviously Hilary was following the articles and this wonderful surprise would have been lost.

So now that we can put the whole Karen Mireau's Mendon Mania into perspective, the bottom line is that the girl has published three books about Mendon in the past year! You can pluck the titles out of the previous paragraphs and they're all available at Lulu.com. The first book is already available at Amazon.com and the next two will be in upcoming weeks.

Whether your genre of choice is music, poetry or history, Karen has you covered. She writes beautifully and the fact that all three of these books feature content from our hometown clearly enhances the local level of interest.

On Thursday afternoon, October 19th, when we first arrived at the Cottage, we joined Sentinel owners Chris and Betsy Carosa at the table nearest to the front door. We were greeted by Denise Dillman, the Cottage's longest tenured employee, who also happens to be one of Tim's favorite former students. Denise, in the dual role of off-duty employee as well as invited guest, went to the author's booth to get her copy of the book and came back by our table where she induced a round of laughter by saying, "It's a good thing I had such a wonderful English teacher who instilled in me a love of reading!" It was a humorous, yet sincere, acknowledgement of Victor High School moments spent decades ago.

When we asked Hilary for confirmation of our thought that Denise was the employee that had been at the Cottage for the longest time, she offered the following comment... "Yes, she started in 2006! She is for sure my longest employee and her family has strong ties to the farming community in Victor! She is truly rooted here in community and the land we walk on!" We continued to see Denise throughout the weekend's proceedings and it would be her that would snap the pictures of us with the band at the closing of Friday night's Buffalo Rose concert.

After a few hours of socializing, the "official" program began with Karen reading some passages from her books. This was a great way to set the tone for the evening as she began by saying, "It was over 40 years ago that I was bartending here and this book is my love letter to The Cottage Hotel."

Karen went on to recognize the previous owners and their families who were in attendance. Acknowledged were Rosemary Heckman-Lewis who lived at the Cottage from the ages of 4 to 21 when her parents owned and operated the business from 1950 to 1972. The Heckman family lived on the second floor and as Karen wrote in her book, "Photos show that they had a very comfortable apartment with a fireplace in the living room and pretty curtains at the windows."

Rosemary, who will appear as a guest musician later in this story, was taken on a trip down Memory Lane when Hilary took her on a tour of the second floor. As Rosemary walked through with her two cousins, they were giddily marveling at how much smaller the rooms seemed to be now. "The hallway seemed so much longer!" Keep in mind that back in the day the Cottage was literally a hotel so the floorplan of the upstairs is that there is one long hallway that runs the entire length of the building, with a series of "guest" rooms off to each side. There was an office and nine guest rooms on the second floor of The Cottage Hotel and the staircase is located behind the bar.

Also acknowledged was Paul S. Gordon "Buzzy" Bronson who operated the Cottage from 1972-1975. A couple notable aspects of this tenure are that Buzzy originated the "Cottage Burger" and is "rightly credited with building the music scene in Mendon hamlet."

This brings us to the era of John Urquhart "Burdock" Ross and Karen Mireau. At this point we'll defer to Karen's "In Memoriam" Dedication in the book. She writes, "This history of the Cottage Hotel is inspired by the special soul we came to know as Burdock. When I was young, Burdock encouraged me to follow my fledgling dream of becoming a writer. Without him, my life would be vastly different. I will always be profoundly grateful to him for that, and for the love and care he gave so freely to so many others trying to find their way."

After Burdock's death in 1981 ownership passed to his younger sister and her husband, Ann and Renier Chaintreuil who were also present at the event. They would maintain ownership until the final passing of the baton. The Cottage Hotel was sold to Hilary and Dave Stott in 2005. "Because they respected our goal of turning the place into a family-oriented establishment," Dave told us, "they turned down an offer that was $50,000 higher than ours."

All of the ownership acknowledgements having been accomplished, by 6:00 master-of-ceremonies Paul Strowe was assuming his role as "the human jukebox." Paul has been playing at the Cottage since the 1970's making him the ultimate choice to man this position. From his opening tune, Paul had the audience joining him for a trip to "Carolina in My Mind."

The general game plan for the evening was to have Paul call on stage a wide variety of guest musicians who had graced the Cottage stage at various times over the past 5 decades. Hilary had told us that, "This should be an adventurous musical evening because I am giving all the musicians total freedom to improvise. Things should go in many interesting directions."

The first guest performer was the aforementioned Mary Heckman-Lewis who performed a song she had written called "The Boca Rotunda Rag." Next up was Hilary and Dave's son-in-law Harout Babigian who rocked the house with his version of Sturgill Simpson's "You Can Have the Crown." One of the highlights of Harout's performance was the classic dancing duet of Hilary and her grandson Emrys.

The next guest performer to join Paul Strowe was Keith Baker who, as a member of Paulsen, Baker & Garvey, had also been playing at the Cottage since the 1970's. Keith was one of the local songwriters whose "This Song" had been written about the Cottage in 1978 and is included in Karen's book. Lyrics which detail the layout of the bar back then say...

Then, this song goes out to you, in the back room, by the back door, by the Foosball table, by the juke box, by the bar.

During his performance, Keith addressed the Cottage's lavatory logistics and one significant change that has occurred. During Baker's earlier years at the venue, the bathrooms were located at the east end of the building, right next to the stage. This resulted in sometimes comical excursions when patrons, both male and female, would have to almost make an on-stage appearance to make it to the restroom.

That somewhat awkward scenario was rectified during the 1980's when the bathrooms were relocated to the other side of the building, on the western wall which would be the one closest to the four corners. After Keith and Paul wrapped up their set with the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band's "Mr. Bojangles" we heard hamlet resident Sharon Hurley deliver one of the evening's more interesting lines when, upon her departure, she showed her support of the Cottage by declaring, "I'm 78 and I've never walked into a bar alone in my life."

Local attorney Jeff Clark was the next to join Paul collaborating on some tunes that would include Jim Croce's "Operator" and Dave Mason's "We Just Disagree."

Next up were a pair of songs with a few quirky connections in terms of artists, as well as title, we heard the Guess Who's "These Eyes" and the Who's "Behind Blue Eyes." In a pun of a joke that never seems to grow old no
